2. Course Number and Title: PoSc 230 West European Politics _____

3. This course is to be: changed deleted _____

If this course is to be changed, proceed with #4, if deleted, skip to #6.

4. Current course description as it appears in the catalog:

An examination of the politics and policies of the major West European powers including Great Britain, the Federal Republic of Germany, France, and Italy. Scandanavian countries will also be included, as will the European Union. Emphasis will be on comparative political structures, public policies, and the historical processes which lead to the evolution of different patterns of state activities.

5. New course description:

An examination of the politics and policies of the major West European powers, as well as the unique dynamics of the European Union. Emphasis will be on comparative political structures and public policies, as well as the numerous cultural and political differences between the West European democracies and the United States.

6. How does this course change/deletion impact the department teaching load? none

7. Will this course now be a requirement or an elective? If a requirement, how does it affect the major/minor? No change

8. Will this course change affect other departments and/or programs? (e.g.: Teacher licensure, Cornerstones, requirements for other majors/minors, etc.) no change

9. What is the rationale for changing or deleting this course? It more accurately reflects the emphasis of the course, and clearly establishes the way the course fits the Global Awareness perspective.

10. How frequently was the course offered and how frequently will it be offered? No change

12. Who will be teaching this course? No change

13. Is this course going to now be a Cornerstone? If yes, please fill out the Cornerstone proposal form as well. Done

14. If previously designated as a Cornerstone, but now removing said designation, why?
