

Proposal to grant a posthumous degree to Justin Garibay.

EPCC, pursuant to a meeting and discussions on September 9, 2008, recommends that the faculty of Simpson College grant Justin Garibay a posthumous BA degree in Liberal Arts.

EPCC's rationale for this recommendation is as follows: Justin had completed 148 hours of academic credit at Simpson College and all course work was satisfactorily completed for a major in Liberal Arts. The only items that remained to be completed for graduation were Writing Competency II and the foreign language competency.
