

- Association of American Medical Colleges : The AAMC represents all 133 accredited U.S. and 17 accredited Canadian medical schools; approximately 400 major teaching hospitals and health systems, including 68 Department of Veterans Affairs medical centers; and nearly 90 academic and scientific societies.
- EMBARK.COM : Since 1995, we have offered: Web-based enrollment management tools for recruitment and admissions offices, professional services to train staff, implement our software, and integrate data to fit our solutions to the unique business processes of each admissions office, and online resources for students transitioning to college, graduate, or other higher educational programs.
- GRADSCHOOLS.COM: With almost 60,000 programs listed in its free directory, GradSchools.com is the leading online resource for graduate school. You can use this site to find your ideal program by searching by subject, location and even school. Try targeting your search even more by going to sections designed specifically for MBA and business programs, international programs, distance and online programs, and a section that helps guide students from under-represented groups.
- The Princeton Review : The Princeton Review helps students, parents, and educators achieve the best results at every stage of their educational careers. By focusing on preparation and practice, we help students improve their performance in the classroom and on standardized tests. Through our website, we help parents, teachers, students and schools navigate the complexities of school admissions.
- Graduate Guide : Established in 1970, Graduate School Guide is a convenient reference tool for college students to quickly locate schools offering the programs they want. More than 1,000 colleges and universities use Graduate School Guide to help their students with a genuine interest in postgraduate study.