Simpson Men's Golf Season Complete

STORM REWIND: Simpson finished fifth (1,115) at the Iowa Conference Championships May 2-3 in Decorah. The meet was delayed by weather on Friday with round three completed Saturday morning and the final round completed Saturday afternoon. Luther (1,074) won the event and the Iowa Conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Division III Championships.

David Combs (Sr., Coon Rapids, Minn., Totino Grace H.S.) was the top finishing Storm golfer as he placed 13th (274).

Brett DeNeve (So., Victor, Iowa, HLV H.S.) finished 18th (279).

Jeff Sailer (Jr., Mohville, Iowa, Woodbury H.S.) was 19th (281).

Lance Halvorsen (Sr., Osceola, Iowa, Clarke H.S.) tied for 22nd (286) with two other players.

John Richter (So., Marshalltown, Iowa, GMG H.S.) tied for 29th (294) with one other golfer.

THE COACH: Larry Shoop is in his sixth season as head men's golf coach at Simpson. During his first season with the Storm, Shoop coached Mike Martin to Simpson's first Iowa Conference Individual Championship since 1970. Simpson finished third at the Iowa Conference Tournament in 2007 under Shoop's direction.

In addition to his coaching duties at Simpson, Shoop is the Director of Golf and Pro Shop Manager at the Storm's practice facility, Deer Run Golf Club, in Indianola. He manages all golf related activities, coordinates special events and outings, provides golf lessons, supervises and trains the golf staff at Deer Run.

Prior to joining the Storm coaching staff, Shoop served as the head boys and girls golf coach at Martensdale-St. Mary's High School where he organized and implemented the school's first golf program.
