Catalog Requirements:

001. Theatre Participation.

In keeping with the department’s commitment to active, process-oriented learning, this course requires participation in each departmental production. Required activities include auditions, cast and/or crew, work calls, box office management, company meetings, strike and other production-related events. Specific assignments will be made by department faculty. Successful completion of departmental screening process is also required. 0 hours.

All full-time degree-seeking students progressing toward a theatre major must be enrolled in Theatre 001 each semester of on-campus attendance.

All full-time students progressing toward a theatre minor or progressing toward teaching endorsement in Speech Communication/Theatre must enroll in Theatre 001 at least once.

Objectives: Departmental projects provide students with cultural and artistic experiences and develop their abilities to observe, reflect, think critically and express themselves. Theatre students have the opportunity to apply these skills through the requirements of the course, and are encouraged to take responsibility for their education and to develop their leadership skills. The course provides a transcript record of the student’s participation in these important activities.

Course Resources:

- Theatre Simpson Student Handbook
- Theatre Simpson Production Calendar (also available at dept. website)
- Scripts, policies, instructions provided by instructor or other departmental staff.

Grading and Course Requirements: The course will be graded on a Pass/No Pass basis. In order to receive a “Pass” grade, the student must complete all of the following required events/activities:

Unless otherwise noted/announced, all will take place in Blank PAC.
