11:15 – 11:45 a.m.	Each topic will be offered during each session time.
	Health Services &amp; Athletics	Dunn Library 120
	Guests will meet with the Health Services and Athletic Training staff to learn about medical services available on and off campus. Additionally, guests will learn about NCAA requirements, such as sports physicals, sickle cell testing, and health insurance.
	Supporting Your Student’s Career Aspirations	Dunn Library 114
	Career Development is here to share what career services are available for your student, activities you might encourage, and internship options in the area.
	Academic Support for First Year Success	Dunn Library 108
	First-year students often struggle with the transition to college, such as managing their time, learning independently, and writing at a college level. How do you help them prepare? The Center for Academic Resources works alongside your student to help them: Adjust to high levels of freedom and academic rigor, write strong college-level papers, and advocate for themselves around their disability alone for the first time. At this workshop, you will learn about the different kinds of academic support and how to help your student access them.
	TRIO Student Support Services	Dunn Library 107
	In this session, you can learn more about the TRIO program, which serves low-income students, first-generation students, and students with disabilities. Not sure if your student is eligible? Stop by to learn more!
11:50 a.m. – 12:40 p.m.	Lunch &amp; Letter Writing	Black Box
	Join us for lunch with Simpson staff and fellow Simpson families. We have all the supplies you need to write a letter to your student. We will deliver letters to student mailboxes during the first week of class. Tissues are available!
