

2026 Workshops may include the following

Relax and Spit it out! Physical and vocal warm-ups, relaxation, breathing, and articulation exercises for the actor.

Improvisation: Elements of individual and group improvisation to free the actor's imagination.

Costumes for the Stage: An interactive workshop for developing creative stage fashion.

Stage Management : Learn the basics of stage management from creating a prompt book to calling a show.

Theatrical Masks: With this workshop you will learn about the use of masks in theatrical productions from the Ancient Greeks to commedia dell'Arte and even today. You will have a chance to express yourself through the painting of a simple mask.

Sound for the Stage: Explore the basics of theatrical sound design.

Directing: Strategies for putting words into actions on stage.

Stage Make Up: A hands-on workshop in which each participant will have the opportunity to apply one or more makeup techniques such as aging, wounds or scars.

Dialects: Learn the basics of developing a standard British dialect.

Exploring Shakespeare: Have fun exploring Shakespeare's language in Two Gentlemen of Verona.

Scene Painting: In this workshop we will go over some tips and tricks for making scenery look good from 50 ft away. We will touch on things like marble, wood grain and wallpaper textures.